Speaker, Singer, Writer & Life Coach

Peggy is a speaker, singer, writer & Life Coach. She has spoken and sang for many youth and women's events. She is an adult Bible study teacher and women's Bible study leader for her church in Franklin, TN. Peggy is a published writer for Experiencing God magazine, Open Windows, One Year Life Verse Devotional, and Chicken Soup for the Soul Inspirations & Shoppers Soul. Peggy also has her BA in Leadership and Ministry, and currently is working on her Christian Life Coach Certification. Most importantly, Peggy is the mother of two children, Shauna and Kyle, and is married to her husband Tom, a music producer & engineer. Together, they own a recording studio and production company.

Peggy Leigh Reeves has been singing and sharing the message of her faith in Jesus Christ since the day she received Him as Lord and Savior. From that moment in her life, God placed in her heart a deep desire for ministry, but after a journey of many struggles and disappointments, Peggy renews her calling to ministry with a greater passion and focus. Peggy is committed to sharing her life with other women who have struggled with depression, low self esteem, anger, lack of purpose, grief and the many obstacles that keep them from living the abundant life found in Christ Jesus. Peggy's testimony today is: to embrace where you've come from, who you are, and where you are today with a hope and anticipation for God's goodness and faithfulness through every circumstance and moment in life.
